

logo in masthead

text box with “add” button list of added items appears here “in the cart” list header list of added items appears here but are crossed through items appear after being entered in text box and pressing “add” button or hitting enter key “in the cart” list header moves down automatically mouse hovers over item and outlined box appears with two icons on either side. If you click on the “check mark” the item will be relocated to the “in the cart” list and crossed out. If you click on the “x” the item will be deleted from the list.

Items have been added to the “in the cart” list section mouse hovers over item and outlined box appears with two icons on either side. If you click on the “up arrow” the item will be replaced to the above list. If you click on the “x” the item will be deleted from the list.